

www.cnhs.org.uk
events@cnhs.org.uk

CNHS is open to everyone interested in natural history: palaeontology, conservation, entomology, ecology, zoology, geology, botany & more!

CAMBRIDGE NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY

Founded in 1857 as Cambridge Entomological Society

www.sedgwickmuseum.org

Sedgwick Museum of Earth Sciences
Thursday 22nd March 2012
7 - 9pm

Please arrive PUNCTUALLY at 7pm at the museum

LIMITED SPACES - BOOK NOW!
Ticket on sale at meetings or available from events@cnhs.org.uk or Programme Secretary

An evening at the Sedgwick Museum

Guided tour with Ken McNamara, Director of Sedgwick Museum

A private tour of the world-class collections of fossils, rocks and minerals covering 550 million years of Earth history with Ken McNamara, Director of the Sedgwick Museum of Earth Sciences.

Tickets £5 or £3 for CNHS, Anglia Ruskin Wildlife Society & local Wildlife Trust members
Early booking essential (limited spaces) - tickets on sale at CNHS meetings or contact events@cnhs.org.uk

Venue: The Sedgwick Museum of Earth Sciences (www.sedgwickmuseum.org)
University of Cambridge, Downing Street, Cambridge CB2 3EQ