

www.cnhs.org.uk
events@cnhs.org.uk

CNHS is open to everyone interested in natural history: palaeontology conservation entomology ecology zoology geology botany & more!

CAMBRIDGE NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY

Founded in 1857 as Cambridge Entomological Society

From plates to pixels: photographic nature notes

& Annual General Meeting

Anglia Ruskin University
Thursday 19th April 2012
7- 9pm

Note early start time

President's address - Inigo Everson, CNHS President

Inigo will give an address to the CNHS audience about wildlife photography.

This will be preceded by the AGM, which will include Officers reports, financial accounts and discussion of past and future activities. The agenda is available on our website - if anyone wishes to raise other matters please contact Inigo (president@cnhs.org.uk).

Admission £1 - free entry for CNHS, Anglia Ruskin Wildlife Society & local Wildlife Trust members

Venue: Room LAB005 (ground floor), Lord Ashcroft International Business School, Anglia Ruskin University, Broad Street, Cambridge CB1 1PT